Kathryn Davies reviewed recent and upcoming WVIA TV local program highlights. Our Town: Milton premiered in March, and the next program in the series, Our Town: Dunmore is scheduled June 4. The original WVIA documentary on the environmental legacy of PA Governor and U.S. Forest Service chief Gifford Pinchot, Seeking the Greatest Good, was broadcast April 22 for Earth Day, and will be repeated in September, as Grey Towers celebrates the 150th anniversary of President Kennedy's visit dedicating the estate. Spirit and Speed is the new WVIA documentary on the thoroughbred horse racing heritage of Pennsylvania. WVIA's Scholastic Achievement Awards Show is our annual showcase of outstanding students and teachers, including contest winners, Visual and Performing Artists of the Year, and the champion of WVIA's Scholastic Scrimmage tournament. Kathryn itemized recent topics on State of Pennsylvania and plans for the 6th season of Northeast Pennsylvania Business Journal interviews to be recorded over the summer for broadcast beginning in October.

Chris Norton reported on radio programming highlights, including recent Simply Grand concerts featuring Timothy Schwarz, violin, Feb. 24 and the Florestan Piano Quartet March 24, and a Homegrown Music concert with jazz performers Tony Cimirosi and the Jesse Lynch Trio May 13. Upcoming Simply Grand concerts include "Music in the Movies" with Gary Boerckel, piano and Bernadette Boerckel, soprano, October 13 and Ellen Rutkowski, soprano with Rick Hoffenberg, piano November 10. The High School Musical Preview series aired February through April, with approximately the same number of schools participating as last year. A new initiative this year is the Degenstein Chiaroscuro in the Schools program, under which we recorded a Chiaroscuro jazz artist instructing and performing with Lewisburg High School students, the Bloomsburg University Jazz Festival , both for radio. In addition we hosted the Berwick High School Stage Band for a day of clinic and performance with 5 prominent jazz musicians, recorded for TV and radio. The goal is to develop ongoing jazz education opportunities for regional students.

As fundraising this year has fallen behind goals, the radio station will hold a special "Catch Up" Day June 6, and the television station is planning a "Close the Gap" membership drive in June.

Chair Jo-Ann Reif reviewed with the group potential dates for future Community Advisory Board meetings and selected September 26, 2013 January 9, 2014 May 22, 2014 All meetings will be at noon at WVIA unless otherwise notified.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris Norton
